Dedication

Dedication

To pay respect to you - Mr. David G. Boudreau -- efficient and highly-respected teacher and guidance director of Charlton High School for the past twelve years - we, the Seniors of 1967, dedicate this, our Yearbook.

Concerned, versatile, and cooperative are just a few of the adjectives that might well be used to describe you. You were outstanding and popular as a teacher,and as a club and Student Council advisor. Always placing the welfare of each pupil first, you helped many to further their education. Charlton alumni will always remember your wise, inspirational counseling, which could come only from one who possessed the highest possible aims and moral principles.

The Class of 1967 wishes you much success and happiness.

A Tribute In Memoriam

Mrs. Shiela M. Glynn

"She is not dead who lives
In the hearts of those she left behind."

Believing that it was through Art that she could make her greatest contribution, Mrs. Shiela M. Glynn made this very art her mode of life.

For eleven years -- 1955-1966, she skillfully brought the world of Art to all Charlton pupils, for she possessed the innate gift of evoking some latent artistic talents from many students.

In addition to her regular classroom duties, Mrs. Shiela Glynn gave most unselfishly of her time and talents to many extra-curricular school activities -- such as, Junior Proms, Senior Receptions, F.F.A. Banquets, State Art Contests, Senior Plays, Drama Club Musicals and faculty parties. She will surely be remembered by many graduates and townspeople for her original and outstanding work on Junior Prom decorations. Dexter Memorial Hall and later the Elementary School Gymnasium were always at Prom and Reception times a veritable paradise.

After her sudden death June 1, 1966, the Shiela M. Glynn Memorial Fund was established. Charlton pupils, staff members, and friends contributed generously to this fund, the interest from which will be used annually to present, at Charlton High School Graduations, a special Art Award to that Senior who has excelled in the field of Art.

This is indeed a splendid and last memorial to:

"A teacher true,
Who served all you
With a cheerful smile
And a helpful style."

Class Song 1967

Music by Dave Fredericks

Words by Bruce Fredericks and Lumina Gauthier

And now our final hour has come
For us to say good-bye
To our dear teachers and our friends
At dear old Charlton High.

With our hopes for the future
And our heads held high,
We'll take those first big steps
And try to reach for the sky.

As freshmen, our goals seemed so far away;
But now that it's graduation day,
The problems we faced in English and math,
Seem small beside those which engulf our new path.

While thanks we say to all of you,
Please keep one thought in mind.
We need God's help and blessings too
To reach our goals in time.

Farewell! Farewell!

Freshman Class History

by: Shirley Bartlett

Well, the day had finally arrived! We were in high school. As we walked into Charlton High School in September 1963, we looked down the corridors and found fifty-five timid freshmen, all excited, because this was the beginning of their long journey.

First, our class was separated into two rooms, under the supervision of Mrs. Emma Hammond and Mrs. Nancy Tossey. Each room elected its own officers, who were as follows: president, Allan Vitkus; vice-president, Dottie Pettey; secretary, Brenda Fitts; and treasurer, Guy Maynard.

At the end of our freshman year, our honor roll students were these: Larry Ditch, Luminia Gauthier, Karen Kupiec, Dorothy Pettey, Liissa Carroll, Linda Chaplin, Brenda Dion, Rosemary Langlois, and Everett Carlson.

Our activities for the year were our Freshman Hop and the Magazine Drive.

Our first year quickly rolled by, and we left for our summer vacation with bright hopes for the three more years of high school that faced us.

Sophomore Class History

by: Margaret Ann Allen

We, the future class of 1967, began our Sophomore year on September 9, 1964 with fifty-six anxious and very energetic Sophomores. With one stage of our four-year journey through Charlton High School in the past, but still in memory, we began the second stage of the journey, under the efficient supervision of Mrs. Emma Hammond and Mr. Robert Frost.

Our Sophomore year got off to a great start under the leadership of the following classmates: president, Dorothy Pettey; vice-president, Sandra Burlingame; secretary, Sandra Ziemba; treasurer, Brenda Fitts; and representatives, Rosemary Langlois and Everett Carlson.

Our Sophomore Hop, held in April of 1965, was socially and financially successful.

We were delighted to see that the Highest Honors were earned by Brenda Fitts, Brenda Dion, Liissa Carroll, Luminia Gauthier, and Larry Ditch. While honors were won by Ava Scott, Darlene Mondor, and Karen Kupiec.

When the month of June finally arrived, we knew that our Sophomore year had come to a close, but we also were aware that the best was yet to come. This would be our Junior Year, with the thoughts of our Junior rings, which were to be a new type, as we had selected a better design, and, of course, the long anticipated event of our own Junior Prom. We left with happy memories of our Sophomore year, and with brighter and more challenging activities coming for our next year.

Junior Class History

By: Brenda Fitts

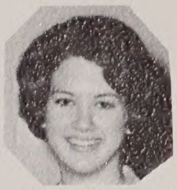
In September, of 1965, we, the class of 1967, began the third step of our four-year journey, under the supervision of Mrs. Nancy Tossey and Mr. Frederick Bayon. Our previously-elected class officers were these: president -- Brenda Fitts; vice-president -- Sandra Burlingame; secretary -- Sandra Ziemba; treasurer -- William Vesey; and representatives -- Liissa Carrol, Ann Freudenthal, Robert Hill, and Dorothy Pettey.

Early in the year, we held our Junior Hop, which was not only a social success, but also added a sizeable profit to our treasury. Next came the arrival of our long-awaited class rings. These were the first rings to be made with our new school design; and as soon as we had received them, fifty-nine Juniors proudly began to show them off.

By the middle of the year, we had regretfully lost Michael Lavallee, John Bettencourt, and Gregory Dame; however, we happily welcomed Patricia Ruscioni, James Ostrakolawicz, Carl Gunter, and Linda King.

On May 20, 1966, came our much-anticipated Junior Prom, with the theme: "Springtime in Vienna". Decorating for this event was a tough job; yet it was almost as much fun as prom-night itself. We would expecially like to thank Mrs. Emma Hammond - Prom Advisor, the late Mrs. Sheila Glynn - Art Director, and Mrs. Nancy Tossey for their patience and tireless effort in helping to make the night of May 20th a night long to be remembered by all of us.

As June approached and our Junior Year came to a close, we were able to look back on many happy memories and good times, and to look ahead with anticipation to our Senior Year - that land beyond our new horizons.



Senior Class History

by: Dorothy Pettey

We, the class of 1967, began our final year at C.H.S. with many high hopes. Ably led by our class officers -- William Vesey, president; Karen Kupiec, vice-president; Sandra Ziemba, secretary; and Brenda Fitts, treasurer -- and our advisors, Mr. Herbert Stevens and Mr. Eugene Remain, we sixty students began our long list of activities. We were sorry to lose Donald Daoust, Gilbert Russell, and Darlene Williams.

First on our list of activities was the Senior Hop, which was held Friday, September 15, 1966. It proved to be a great social success and was first of the many C.H.S. hops which bands, not records, were used.

Next on the list came our Senior Play, "George Washington Slept Here", which was presented November 18, 1966. Under the professional and patient direction of Miss Judith Blake and Mr. William Taylor, our cast of sixteen gave a successful performance. Our leads, Randy Hill and Dottie Pettey, were well supported by the following Seniors: Eva Bachand, Sandra Burlingame, Glenn Butler, Liissa Carroll, Shirley Bartlett, Ann Freudenthal, Bobby Hill, Ronald Labossiere, Dennis Moriarty, Marion Rollins, Joseph Silvestri, Victoria St. Martin, and Sandra Ziemba. A special thanks goes to Jeffrey Plumb, a freshman, who was a great help in our production. We would also like to thank our art supervisor, Mr. Paul Dowgiert and all others who helped to make our play a success.

We were very proud of our high honor student Brenda Dion, and these honor pupils: June Boudreau, Larry Ditch, Brenda Fitts, Karen Kupiec, Diana Mitchell, Linda Barton, Liissa Carroll, William Grigarauskas, Randall Hill, Darlene Mondor, Ava Scott, Dorothy Pettey, Victoria St. Martin, Allan Vitkus, ad Sandra Ziemba.

One of the biggest money-making activities was the Christmas Card Sale. We want to thank our class secretary, Sandra Ziemba, and our treasurer, Brenda Fitts, for the time and work they spent to help us realize our profit of $300.

We were very proud of Sandra Ziemba, who was chosen as our D.A.R. representative, and Dottie Pettey, who was elected as Student Government Day Representative.

Our list of Senior activities came to a joyful end with a very enjoyable one day trip, an activity in which all Seniors could participate, followed by Class Day Banquet and Graduation.

As our final year drew to a close, the Seniors of 1967 paused to thank all those who gave their time and talents to help us during our four years of high school. Thank you, Mr. William Ball, our principal; Mr. Herbert Stevens, and Mr. Eugene Remain, our class advisor; Mrs. Emma Hammond, faculty advisor of our Junior Prom; Mrs. Mabel Fiske and Mrs. Emma Hammond, advisors of our Yearbook; Mr. Robert Ewing, superintendent of schools, all the townspeople, our friends, and most of all, our dear parents.

COMMENCEMENT

Reflect, if you will, on the word Commencement. Not only does it mean a celebration of successful four years, but also a "beginning of graduation life." Actually, at your High School Commencement you are starting to assume life's major responsibilities. The diploma you receive is not only a reward, but a passport to this future responsibility. American Optical Company congratulates you on your "Commencement." Our best wishes go with you as you assume new duties and obligations that will further mold into a successful American Citizen.

Congratulations!
